

Eventing Clinic With Amy Barrington
Back By Popular Demand May 4th, 5th, & 6th, 2008

At The Colorado Horse Park, Parker, CO

Amy Barrington has been Eventing and Coaching up to the advanced level for twenty years. In that time she has been named to the USET's long list, on four different horses, most recently with "Platinum." Riders of all levels have enjoyed riding and improving under Amy's relaxed and confident teaching style. In Dressage, she aims to improve the connection and communication of horse and rider. Her jumping exercises build confidence in the horse, while sharpening the skills and focus of the rider.

Sunday, May 4th is for riders who work or attend school during the week. In the morning we will have Dressage Warm-up and Show Jumping clinic, in the afternoon, the Cross Country Clinic. If you plan on participating in the Cross Country Clinic, you must also ride in the Show Jumping Clinic. Monday, May 5th will be Dressage Warm-up and Show Jumping Clinic, and Tuesday, May 6th, the Cross Country Clinic.

Space is limited, so please sign up now. Fill out the form below and send it with a check made payable to The Colorado Horse Park, 7522 S. Pinery Drive, Parker, CO 80134. Attention: Vivien Van Buren. For more information, please call Vivien at (303) 814-1500 or email vniviv@cs.com

I understand that the sport of Eventing is a high-risk sport and that my participation in this educational activity may also involve participation in an "equine activity" as defined by applicable laws and is wholly at my own risk. I understand that my participation involves all inherent risks associated with the dangers and conditions which are an integral part of equine activities, including but not limited to, the property of equines to behave in ways which may result in injury, harm of even death to humans and other animals around or near them; the unpredictability of equine reaction to sounds, sudden movements, smells, and unfamiliar objects; persons or other animals; hazards related to the surface and subsurface conditions; collisions with other equines or objects; and, the potential of a participant to act in a negligent or unskilled manner which may contribute to injury to the participants or others, including failing or inability to maintain control over the animal. By participating in this activity I agree to assume responsibility for those risks, and I release and agree to hold harmless the activity organizer, organizing committee, the Colorado Horse Park, its Board of directors, management, staff, trainers, boarders, and students or anyone associated with the facility, liable for any injuries to me or my horse.

Warning: Under Colorado Law, an equestrian professional I not liable for an injury to, or death of a participant in equine activities, pursuant to section 13-21-120 Colorado Revised statues.
